SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1862.

A MODEL JUSTICE.

So much has been said and sung about country judges, and their judicial brethren, the alcaldes, that it is with the greatest repugnance we occupy ourselves again with these gentlemen; but in the quiet little town of San Antonio de Areco, an event has recently taken place, which is condemned by the majority of the townspeople.

The history of the row is as follows. Some treasured friend, or very near relation, of a shop keeper of the town, having departed this life, and gone to another and a better world, her friends determined to have the ceremony of praying over the corpse at the church door performed by the worthy curate. Accordingly, having notified their wishes to the priest, the ceremony was gone through in the midst of a crowd of sorrowing friends and relations.

In a few days after, the big gun of the little town heard of the matter and thirsting for an opportunity to prove to the public his watchfulness and activity, sent a polite note to the unsophisticated curate, telling him that he the judge had heard there was a decree of the government prohibiting the performance of such ceremonies, under a penalty, of quien sabe how many paper dollars, on the unhappy curate who officiated in the matter.

If a bombshell were pitched into the priest's house it could not have caused more noise and surprise, than the learned judge's letter; but the priest is a good man, & has seen in his day a great many strange characters in the jugados of San Antonio. So thinking, probably, that the death of the party in question (who was some way connected with the judge's family) had plunged the honest judge into such extravagant sorrow, that his reasoning powers had momentarily fled, he put the letter on one side and thought no more of the matter.

The indefatigable judge, however, was not to be put off in this manner; so he wrote again to the select clergyman, repeating what he had said before, and requesting that the Curé, would appear before the tribunal. The decree in question, it appears has never been published, and the judge himself had not got it when he wrote his first letter to the Curé, but subsequently he obtained it.

The judge, so far from being blamed, should be praised for his alacrity and watchfulness of the public interests; but what is to be lamented is the severe and uncouth manner in which he wrote to the curé.

The matter has been brought to our notice by several of our subscribers, who are desirous, respect the priest more than the judge, since, if he knew of the existence of such a decree, he was bound to make it public, and as it is absurd to suppose that his worship was ignorant of the tribute of respect about to be paid to the memory of the deceased, he should have interfered before it occurred and not after.

In the selection of a judge for the incoming year, we trust that the foreign interest will be consulted and that family arrangements of country jugados will no longer be tolerated in this country.

EDITORS—TABLE.

THE STANDARD never closes its columns to any party, in a matter of public interest. In Mr. Murray's case, we have taken side with him because we considered him shamefully treated, and forcibly dispossessed of his property; and although we do not yet see any reason to change our opinion in the matter, still we cannot withhold from the public Mr. Zimmermann's side of the case. He asserts that Mr. Murray has not been forcibly dispossessed of the road, because the Contractor was always under the orders of the Company's engineer. In case of any difference or dispute, the contract provided that the matter should be left to arbitration. In the present dispute, Mr. Z. as the agent of the company has, offered to leave the matter to arbitration, and he says Mr. Murray has refused.

The private yard of the contractor, we understand, has not been broken into, as was rumored.

We will not take upon ourselves to decide in the merits of the case, but we confess a sort of jealousy at these drawbacks which Islands who infest the road at present, and regret sincerely that a purely English company should be obliged to resort to such measures.

Allsorts of reports are current through town about Montevideo: the most extravagant stories are told by passengers, recently arrived, of the feverish state of that city and there seems to be no doubt that things are coming to a crisis. In many parts of the country districts, fellows are going about, in open defiance. We rather think, however, that the matter is exaggerated, and that things are not so bad as is reported.

The great circus company has at last arrived and in a few days we expect to see a coach drawn by 50 horses driving through town.

The wool market seems terribly depressed, and farmers join in one tremendous chorus against the buyers. Prices are 15 per cent. lower to-day than a few weeks ago, and the greatest confusion exists in the Plaza about wool delivered on contract. The buyers are so fastidious that nothing will please them, and the farmers are so indignant that some of them are already storing their wooly sooner than yield to what they consider combination.

The French packet is due to-morrow, but, as usual, will not be here before Monday or Tuesday, the news which she will bring us is looked forward to with the greatest anxiety, as from the attitude of the contending armies in the States, up to last dates, a fearful battle was imminent.

The Boca Railway Co. seems to be a fait accompli. The concessionaire has at last transferred his right to parties who will no doubt from the character of the men who have taken it in hand that we will be able to bring up goods from the Boca, per rail, in less than 12 months from to-day.

THE BOCA ROAD.

Buenos Aires, 30th October 1862.

Excellency.

D. Alfonso Lelievre, concessionaire of the Railway from Buenos Aires to the Boca, Barracas and the Ensenada, before you respectfully present myself and say, that the broken state of my health does not permit me to devote myself with the necessary attention and assiduity to the works of said railway, and I have a need to transfer all the rights I had in said enterprise to the engineer Mr. James C. Simpson who is in a position to consuience immediately the construction of the road.

For these reasons I request Y.E to take this into consideration and decide as I have requested, it being just, &c.

A. Lelievre.

Granted; to its effects, let it go to the Public notary.

SAAVEDRA

LUIS B. DOMINGUEZ

Here follow notifications to Messrs. Lelievre and Simpson.

Buenos Aires, November 24th 1862.

With this date before me, and in the register at my charge, D. Alfonso Lelievre signed a deed of transfer of the rights granted to him by the Government for the construction of a railway from Buenos Aires to the Ensenada to the name of Mr. James C. Simpson, which I notice.

Arauja.

WESTERN RAILWAY.

Buenos Aires Nov. 26th 1862.

To Senator Don Vicente Cazon, representative of Government in the Western Railway Co.

The proposed object of the law of 24th October 1862 is evidently the prolongation of the Western Railroad as far as the Villa Mercedes. From the different methods proposed up to the present, the law has adopted a mixed system, authorising the Government, either to purchase the shares of the company, paying its debts, and then constructing the line as far as the Villa Mercedes, with funds taken from the Bank and payable by means of a sinking fund, or by otherwise contributing to its capital to the completion of the road, having as benefit to sell shares whose proceeds would go to the increase of the sinking fund.

The first option, would be a privilege to the purchase of the shares by Government, within the limits of the law, the payment of the debt to the Bank, and cost of prolongation of the road, all of which would consume about forty millions which it is authorized to take from the Bank, and consequently the Government would have a responsibility of about three millions and a half per annum.

The Government might answer this responsibility with the proceeds of the road, because although up to the present it has only produced over three and a half per cent per annum, seen term on the capital invested, this return would probably be increased to more than double when the line should reach Mercedes and be properly endowed with rolling stock This probability is founded on 3 reasons: 1st That a greater zone being embraced the concurrence of passengers and transportable goods would be enlarged. 2d In the increasing requirements of locomotion of the populations through which the line passes, whose results are by experience beyond all calculation 3d. In the increase of population which the country receives, and which will be greater every day on account of the war in the United States 4th. On the well known principle that the working expenses of a railway are in inverse ratio with the prolongation of the line.

In the second case the Government instead of acquiring shares to sell them afterwards, may omit that double operation as useless, and regenerate, with the capital at its disposal, the present company, giving it elements of vitality which it now has not.

Before deciding on the first measure whose result entirely depends on the probity and zeal of the person or persons whom the Government may place as Director, it is desirable to know whether the second might be realized under acceptable conditions. This, in such case, would be preferable because the Government would have a saving of ten millions which is the amount of the acquisition of the shares and debts of the present company and it would reckon for the success of the enterprize, on the impulse of private interest which is an element which the Government would find difficulty in replacing by means of its agents.

To choose prudently between these two systems, the Government desires that you may see the Directors, communicating to the undersigned their disposition as well as that of the shareholders for the prosecution of this idea.

The undersigned avails himself of this occasion to salute you with the greatest consideration.

LUIS L. Dominguez.

NORTHERN RAILWAY Co.

We publish the following communication, which is interesting, and shows the readiness of the Co. to take a wise hint. We are happy to acquit the agent of rudeness: it seems Mr. Oliver, the Juez, has played us this Gaucho return for our defence of his character when accused of petty despotism. The's ingratitude is unfortunately, too common.

My dear Mr. Mulhall.

I notice what this morning's Standard" states respecting the breakfast at Belgrano. I beg to state that I had nothing to do with the affair beyond being an invited guest of the Juez de Paz.

Respect ing the practicability of opening the Line to traffic, the company will be guided as is customary by the advice of their Engineers.

Thanks at Mr re having fixed upon the 1st for the inauguration. I need not mention that I shall only be too happy to place at your and your friend's disposal as many tickets as you may require.

I remain very sincerely

Yours

Henry J. Ziele Esqr.

LOCAL EVENTS.

A Mr. Stevens, who has been found the fattest individual in Buenos Aires, is to receive no less a distinction than to name to the shabby company of unemployed eager of Government. Mr. Sampson. Mr. David Robertson, Messrs. Barnes bros. & Lockwood are each anxiety for our paper every fortnight.

DON ALFONSO ESCALADA—former president of the 11th Department was elected in the province of Entre Rios, having 1,155 votes to 1,048 of war re.

ARMY.—A letter from Corrientes, day morning, to the Standard, says that the Paraguayan army is now encamped at Curuzu-Cuatia. It was about 10,000 strong, and merely sent to frighten the people.

HOGS IN CITIES.—The same system pointed out last week, is fast to prevail in Europe. The day before yesterday 120 arrived per Ayacucho from Rosario and put between them Bandits and soldiers to guard them, while in the streets, we, the inhabitants, were ill-treated. On the 6th of December it is said we shall have 200 more.

MR. BURCHENTAL.—The gentleman, who is chamberlain to Her Catholic Majesty, and intimate friend of all the Spanish notabilities, proceeded to Montevideo in the Cavadonga as the guest of Admiral Pinzon.

GOOD LUCK.—The editor of the local events and general news of the "Tribuna" has obtained the great prize of five hundred ounces in the Montevideo lottery. This is we believe the first instance in our "genus"; did we invest in lotteries we should take it as a good augury for ourselves.

DOMINOES.—When our Montevideo friends subscribed for a word to General Zuragoza, we said "probably the funds will be wanted for his coffin". We agree with the "N. Argentina"; the grave covers all misdemeanors. R.I.P.

ENGLISH PACKET.—Over three thousand copies of the "STANDARD." were despatched per "Mersey" for our European readers, informing them that Government had ceased subscribing to our paper owing to our strictures on the non-arrest of the Guardia Mozo murderer; Mr. Murray's arrest, and other strange occurrences will also be noted.

ARTESIAN WATER. This new item of Argentine produce is sold at 15 S per demijohn, 58 calle Piedras. It is no quite equal to chateau Margot.

ORIENTAL ORANGES. The W. railway offer their busses gratis to anyone who will undertake to run them: this speaks badly for the traffic.

SALADERO FURNITURE D. Patricio Brown of Barracas, having sold a part of his saladero premises, advertises that he will dispose of the machinery, wheel-barrows, cylinders &c.

TRADE OF ROSARIO. The value of goods sent to the interior from Rosario, in the month end ng th e 20th instant, amounted to 450,000 dollars.

THE GREAT OCEANIC CIRCUS. It is said the company bring with them a mule, which they will offer 5000 dollars to the successful rider.

THE PLAZA PARQUE is improving thanks to the zeal and intelligence of the committee of management.

Now it is to be completely surrounded with walk and rails and the western Railway Co. has been requested to fulfill a former promise by constructing iron gates and other ornamental works.

ECCLESIASTICAL QUESTION. It appears the mission of doctors Castellanos and Vazquez Sagastume to settle the ecclesiastical question has been quite unsuccessful.

It is strange that the Monte Video Government should send to the municipal of the master of the Montevideo lodges, and struggle still the at the same time that public reports state that they had instructions "to look after the exiles here" a number of arrests should take place in Montevideo.

SAN MARTIN STATUE.—We find before this sa ne in the plaza Retiro a soldier always on guard, we suppose with the mien no of preventing any one, from white washing it like the column of Lima y.

Such has not happened yet, fortunately; but the guard has not prevented the chaps which surround it from being broken and the grass growing luxuriantly where it was not meant to grow.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE.—we are requested to give public thanks to the committee appointed by Government for the procession of the sacred body of Christ on enquiring what they have done since their appointment, we hear nothing, nothing, nothing.

CONFIRMATION.—For the British Hospital W. C. Thompson Esq. on behalf of J. C. Thompson Esq. Senior.

DEATH

On Friday the 28th after a long illness Mr. Edward Dalton aged 61, of Cawsmouth Ireland for many years a resident of this country.

than any that has ever heretofore been projected.

As an indication of the estimation in which the enterprise is held in Rio de Janeiro, Pernambuco and Bahia (the only cities it has visited thus far on its route) the Directors hopes he can briefly state, without a particle of vanity or egotism, that in the former capitalist, their Circus was the favorite resort of the Imperial family—the only circus that the Emperor, the Empress and their children have ever visited, and that, at its departure, it was escorted out of the harbour by excursion parties and bands of music on steamers; that its departure was marked by a comparative suspension of business, with the water-craft lined with the citizens who cheered the company 'God Speed.' At Bahia the departure was marked by demonstrations approaching to a general ovation. In each of these cities, the audiences were larger and more distinguished than at any public entertainment for the same length of time e, while the principal artists were complimented with courtesies and attentions heretofore recorded only to the most celebrated prima donnas, primo tenores and primo basses.

It remains to be seen whether the genius of the citizens, and the merits of the establishments, will recommend itself as favorably to the B. Ayreans.

Further particulars of the location of the Circus to Amphitheatre, the day of its inauguration, and the fiscal and police regime of the establishment, will be given in future advertisements in this paper.
